

Career entry qualifications

Certificate IV in Allied Health Assistance

Get qualified to work in a dynamic allied health environment in just six months.

Learn from expert Mater Educators and study in a hospital-based training facility.

Gain a nationally-recognised qualification and learn how to provide therapeutic and program related support activities under the guidance of allied health professionals.

Scan the QR code for upcoming intakes, costs and how to apply

Work in a variety of settings

 Community services

 Physiotherapy

 Occupational therapy

 Rehabilitation

You will learn

- Medical terminology
- Communication skills
- How to guide patients through movement programs
- Anatomy and physiology
- How to work with patients with diverse needs
- Infection control skills
- How to provide therapeutic support to patients
- Fall prevention strategies
- How to work effectively within an allied health team
- Skills to empower patients
- How to identify and report risks

Duration

Six months including at least 120 hours of placement organised by our dedicated team.

Apply today

Talk to us about your eligibility

 1300 070 350

To find out more visit

 matereducation.qld.edu.au

Australian
Qualifications
Framework

NATIONALLY RECOGNISED
TRAINING